

The Enfield Early Childhood Collaborative KITE--Key Initiatives to Early Education-- invites Enfield parents and preschool educators of incoming kindergarteners to attend:

Preparing for the Kindergarten Transition

*New Date: Thursday March 31

6:30-8:00pm

Hazardville Memorial School Cafeteria

Light refreshments available

This event is being organized for parents and educators of children who will start Kindergarten in September 2011. Parents and educators will receive information on the goals and expectations of a child entering kindergarten, transition tips and registration information. Enfield Kindergarten Teachers will be available to share information about the kindergarten experience and to address some parent concerns.

Please RSVP to Kate Faherty at 860-253-4769 or kfaherty@enfield.org by March 25, 2011

Please note if Enfield Public Schools are closed or if there is an early release due to snow the event will be cancelled. We do not have child care for this event.
